Chapter 2: Governance

Rule 5: Democratic Structure

5.1 The Annual General Meeting \(AGM\) is the highest decision-making authority in the Union and its decisions can supersede decisions taken by any other body.

5.2 The Executive Committee is the Union's supreme decision-making body in between AGMs and its decisions can supersede decisions taken by any other body.

5.3 The Executive Committee elects members of, and delegates responsibilities to, various Sub-Committees. These Sub-Committees can take decisions on behalf of the Executive Committee within their defined remit, although their decisions can be reversed by the Executive Committee.

5.4 The General Secretary is responsible for the day-to-day running of the Union, including all unelected staff, and is subject to rules and policies decided by the AGM, Executive Committee, and relevant Sub-Committees.

5.5 The branches take democratic decisions through membership meetings, elected committees, and/or elected officials, but decisions must be consistent with, and can be superseded by, rules and decisions of the AGM, Executive Committee and relevant Sub-Committees.

5.6 Meeting minutes, and decisions on motions, policies, and rules must be recorded on forms approved by the Democracy Sub-Committee or the Executive Committee.

5.7 Voting in the IWGB is organised by a show of hands (or other electronic means) that are visible to other members in the Branch meeting, Executive Committee, or AGMs. Votes shall be called for members "in favour", "against", and "abstentions." The only exceptions are postal ballots as required in Rule 6.3 or for votes on the Executive Committee by email (or other electronic means) in Rule 7.10

Rule 6: Annual General Meeting (AGM)

6.1 Decisions at the AGM shall be taken by delegates, elected by branches, on a proportional representation basis. All Executive Committee members shall also be delegates.

6.2 All IWGB members shall be entitled to propose motions to be voted upon at the AGM.

6.3 Uncontested candidacies for Central Union officer roles shall also be approved or rejected by delegates. If candidacies for these roles are contested, they must be decided by postal ballot.

6.4 From the IWGB AGM in 2024, the tenure of the 8 Central Union Officials will be for 2 years.

6.5 The IWGB AGM shall remain an annual event, but in years between Central Union elections, it will only conduct other usual AGM business.

6.6 The Democracy Sub-Committee shall be responsible for implementing Rules 6.1-6.5 as well as deciding dates, agendas, and any other matters related to the AGM.

Rule 7: Executive Committee

7.1 The Executive Committee shall consist of Central Union Officials and Branch Officials.

7.2 The Central Union Officials shall be: General Secretary, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Women's and Marginalised Genders Officer, Co-BAME Officers, and the Branch Support Officer.

7.3 In the event that a Central Union (nationally elected) Official resigns, leaves the IWGB, is found to be unfit to serve, is expelled by the Union and/or is removed from office (as a result of a disciplinary process), die or otherwise vacate the position, that position shall remain vacant for the remainder of the term. There will be no obligation on the IWGB to ensure an election is carried out to replace that official (during the remainder of the term). However, where necessary, the Executive Committee may appoint any IWGB member, by majority vote at an EC meeting, as an acting interim replacement, so that the work of the position can be carried out for the remainder of the term. However, if a member is appointed, that interim official shall not be an ex officio member of the EC and shall not have voting rights on the EC.

7.4 All Branch Chairs shall be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee.

Further Branch Officials may be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee on a proportional representation basis. The threshold for additional Branch ex-officio members will be decided at the Executive Committee meeting before branch AGMs, with input from the Democracy and Equalities Sub-Committees. Branches choose the additional ex-officio members of the Executive Committee who will serve for a year following the IWGB AGM.

7.5 The Executive Committee shall elect a Chair and a Vice-Chair, from among its members, after each AGM. The Chair shall have responsibility for deciding the agenda and running meetings. When the Chair is absent, the Vice-Chair shall take their place. If both are absent, the duty falls to the General Secretary. Neither the Chair nor the Vice-Chair shall be any of the General Secretary, President or Vice-President.

7.6 The Executive Committee may make policy in any area, including areas covered by the Sub-Committees.

7.7 All motions must be submitted one week in advance and any proposed amendments brought to the meeting in writing.

7.8 Agendas for meetings shall be distributed to Executive Committee members and the general membership five days in advance of the meeting. The Chair (or in their absence, the Vice Chair) of the Executive Committee shall have the power, on an exceptional basis, to redact (as they see fit) the version sent out to the membership on confidentiality grounds. The Chair must inform the Executive Committee whenever this is the case.

7.9 Minutes of meetings shall be distributed to Executive Committee members in advance of the following meeting each month. Following this, the Chair (or in their absence, the Vice Chair) of the Executive Committee shall have the power, on an exceptional basis, to redact the minutes (as they see fit) on confidentiality grounds, if they are requested by a member. The Chair must inform the Executive Committee whenever this is the case.

7.10 Decisions on motions, including records of how Executive Committee members voted, shall be distributed to the general membership each month. The Chair of the Executive Committee shall have the power, on an exceptional basis, to redact this (as they see fit) for confidentiality reasons. 7.11 On an exceptional basis, the Executive Committee may vote on a motion by email (or other electronic means) outside of the Committee meeting, provided that the following criteria are satisfied:

7.11.1 The motion concerns a matter of urgency and it would not be in the interests of the Union to wait until the following Executive Committee meeting to vote on it.

7.11.2 The motion is straightforward enough to be voted on in a yes/no/abstain manner, without general discussion and debate.

7.11.3 The motion is proposed by three members of the Executive Committee.

7.11.4 The voting period shall last for 72 hours from the time the motion was circulated.

Rule 28: Disciplinary Procedure

28.1 The Disciplinary Sub-Committee shall have the sole discretion to decide whether or not to bring disciplinary charges against a member.

28.2 Other than pursuant to Rule 27.4, the Disciplinary Sub-Committee shall not have the power to take decisions on the merits of allegations or on individual disciplinary sanctions to be applied. The Sub-Committee shall instead appoint a Qualified Investigator to consider the evidence for the allegations as well as the response of the accused member. The Qualified Investigator shall then take a decision on whether or not the allegations are substantiated, and if they are, the appropriate sanction.

28.3 Sanctions for disciplinary offences include:

28.3.1 A verbal warning;

28.3.2 A written warning;

28.3.3 A temporary suspension from membership benefits;

28.3.4 A temporary suspension from elected office;

28.3.5 A permanent bar on holding elected office; and

28.3.6 Expulsion.

28.4 Any member who has been sanctioned by a Qualified Investigator has the right to appeal against the decision. The appeal shall be heard by another Qualified Investigator, appointed by the Sub-Committee. The decision of this Qualified Investigator shall be final.

28.5 The Disciplinary Sub-Committee shall have the power to interpret and provide further guidance on Rules 27.1-27.4.

Rule 29: Member Complaints

29.1 The member complaints procedure shall be overseen by a senior member of staff chosen by the General Secretary. If this member of staff is recused, absent, or otherwise unable to perform their duties in relation to the complaints procedure then responsibility for the procedure shall lie with the Disciplinary Sub-Committee.

29.2 Members may access the complaints procedure to complain about the behaviour of other members, Union officials, or staff. The complaints procedure may not be used to complain about policies as all members (except those in the General Members Branch) have access to the democratic structures which underpin decision-making in the Union, and the democratic structures are the appropriate venue through which to voice opposition to policies.

29.3 The senior staff member shall assess complaints and discard any which are inappropriate or fall outside the remit of the procedure.

29.4 For complaints which satisfy the threshold set out in Rule 29.3, the senior staff member shall assign a Qualified Investigator to assess the complaint and the evidence underpinning it. The Qualified Investigator shall then take a decision as to whether or not the complaint is upheld and shall issue any recommendations on how to resolve the complaint or prevent similar complaints from arising. The senior staff member shall ensure that any recommendations are brought to the attention of the relevant Officials, Sub-Committees, or Committees which have the power to enact the recommendations.

29.5 If the member is unsatisfied with the outcome of their complaint, they may appeal the decision. The senior staff member shall then appoint a Qualified Investigator to hear and decide upon the appeal. This Qualified Investigator shall also issue any relevant recommendations.

29.6 The Disciplinary Sub-Committee shall have the power to interpret and provide further guidance on Rules 28.1-28.5.

Chapter 6: IWGB the Employer

Rule 30: Unelected Staff

30.1 Line management and supervision of unelected staff shall fall under the remit of the General Secretary, with all staff feeding into a reporting line that ends with the General Secretary.

30.2 The General Secretary shall also be responsible for deciding how to allocate central Union resource towards staffing.

30.3 Branches may use branch funds to hire staff. For this to happen the branch must vote to allocate the necessary resource and the decision must be further approved by the Human Resources Sub-Committee. The necessary resource means the total cost to the Union of employing the employee (wages, national insurance, and pensions contributions), plus an uplift of 20% to contribute towards line management costs. These staff members are employees of the Union and must be line managed by a Union employee.

30.4 Unelected Staff must support elected officials to carry out their role to the best of their abilities, regardless of the staff's personal views. Unelected Staff must not act in a way that unjustifiably favours or discriminates against particular individuals or interests.

30.5 Unelected staff must not seek to influence votes of elected Officials or Union members on any matter. Unelected staff must remain neutral for debates on motions (and abstain from voting if Union members). Unelected staff must also not draft motions or policies for others to present unless requested to do so by their line managers.

30.6 Unelected staff must remain neutral in Union elections. Unelected staff must not use their access to members, membership lists, communication channels, or any other resources to benefit a candidate in an election.

30.7 Unelected staff who are Union members cannot stand as candidates in elections within a Branch, the Union, or as delegates to the Union AGM.

31.3 One of the Co-BAME Officers must be a member of the HR Sub-Committee.

31.4 At least one other member of the HR Sub-Committee must be a BAME member of the Executive Committee.

31.5 The General Secretary shall be an ex-officio member of the HR Sub-Committee.
